

When the Trumpet Sounds ...

- When the trumpet sounds we shall all be changed—old to new in an instant. And in that precise moment which the Bible calls the twinkling of an eye, we become immortal.
- Christ appears and as soon as we see him we are instantly like him in our new creation bodies that God himself has chosen for us.
- Our old bodies had been planted in the ground as seeds awaiting our resurrection. They were sown in dishonor but now at the sound of the trumpet are raised to his glory. They were sown in weakness but are now raised in his power—the very same power with which God raised Christ from the dead.
- Our old bodies which were formed in the likeness of Adam had gone back to the dust of the ground while waiting to be raised in spiritual bodies which would be transformed into the likeness of Christ. And now that has happened. Divinely reconstructed at the blast of the trumpet we now bear the image of the Son of God forever and are fully prepared and equipped for our inheritance in the kingdom of God.
- We are now ready for our eternal home.

*Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord,
knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain.*
