

MEET THE CARTERS

Jed and Katie Carter have served with Wycliffe in Papua New Guinea (PNG) since 2010. Jed grew up overseas, Katie (nee Caldwell) grew up around Macomb, IL. Their three girls—Tikvah, Anya, Mira—consider PNG home.

PNG has 840 language groups, most of which do not have Scriptures in their vernacular language. Around 250 New Testaments have been translated in PNG.

Jed's primary work has been as Language Survey Team Leader, informing Bible translation strategies; 70 language groups have been researched by the survey team since 2010. He also serves as Chief Communications Officer and Crisis Management Team Leader. Past roles for Jed and Katie in PNG have included soccer coach, violin teacher, and executive committee member. Jed completed his MA in Applied Anthropology this field term.

The Carters have tickets to return to PNG in January of 2022, but must achieve Wycliffe's budget requirement before being cleared. They invite others to partner in the Bible translation effort through prayer and giving.

For more about the Carters, see www.carter-pathways.com.

MEET THE CARTERS

Jed and Katie Carter have served with Wycliffe in Papua New Guinea (PNG) since 2010. Jed grew up overseas, Katie (nee Caldwell) grew up around Macomb, IL. Their three girls—Tikvah, Anya, Mira—consider PNG home.

PNG has 840 language groups, most of which do not have Scriptures in their vernacular language. Around 250 New Testaments have been translated in PNG.

Jed's primary work has been as Language Survey Team Leader, informing Bible translation strategies; 70 language groups have been researched by the survey team since 2010. He also serves as Chief Communications Officer and Crisis Management Team Leader. Past roles for Jed and Katie in PNG have included soccer coach, violin teacher, and executive committee member. Jed completed his MA in Applied Anthropology this field term.

The Carters have tickets to return to PNG in January of 2022, but must achieve Wycliffe's budget requirement before being cleared. They invite others to partner in the Bible translation effort through prayer and giving.

For more about the Carters, see www.carter-pathways.com.