PRAYERS FOR INDEPENDENCE DAY

O Lord, on the eve of Independence Day, we pray that you will make each of us aware of the solemn responsibilities which we face in defending our heritage of freedom. Remind us that without dependence upon you we will surely fail. Enable our President and those in political authority to do their work with wisdom and justice. Continue, O Lord, to be the protector and defender of us all. In your name we pray. Amen.

O God, who has offered freedom to all men, we give praise and thanks for this day which celebrates the bringing of freedom to some. In our celebrations this day; our joyful remembering the events that led to independence; help us to recall that we are never fully independent until we surrender in dependence to you and your will. We rest, as our liberty does, on the actions of others who have gone before. These "Forefathers" pledged their lives, their fortunes, and their sacred honors for the sake of liberty. Strengthen us so we may do no less. Amen. [Source: Maintain the mind dot com]
